

Alpha Home is a spiritually based substance abuse treatment and support program for women and their families to help prepare them to become productive members of society.

Art at Alpha Home Program

The Art at Alpha Home Program offers therapeutic and educational art classes to women in recovery, that provide a constructive outlet for emotions and help develop unique talents and abilities. Classes are taught every week. The art classes compliment the values of Alpha Home by helping to focus on the "whole woman", giving them the best chance for a successful recovery.
